PLANNING

The site is located within Stratford-upon-Avon District Council for planning purposes. We understand that the subject site is not subject to any particular policy constraint or designation. For example it is not in the Green Belt, ANOB, and a Conservation Area or in a flood risk zone. The site is located just outside the built up area boundary of Stratford upon Avon within a Special Landscape Area (Policy EF2) within the District Local Plan 2006 before it was deleted in 2009. The site received full planning permission for 113.20 sqm of stables and associated stores in 2008. (Ref: 08/02882/FUL). The site has been put forward for potential residential development site in the Stratford District Council's Call for Sites. Pre application enquiries have been made for multiple dwellings however a single dwelling will be considered only. These are available to view in the information pack. The site is available for sale without planning permission. It is anticipated that there will be resistance to 3 dwellings on the site.
